EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2014

Accelerated Plan Review:

Application can be made for plan review before a site plan or other required approvals occur and a building permit can be applied for. The actual plan review fee noted above with an additional 20% fee to cover the re-review when the site plan is complete, appropriate approvals have been obtained, and a building permit is applied, for will be charged when the plans are submitted. Payment of the plan review and office administration fee will start the review process. No additional plan review fee will be charged at the time of permit application.

3rd Party Plan Review:

The Codes Compliance Administrator will accept a report prepared of an independent plan review from 3rd party provider approved by the Codes Compliance Administrator. The approval by the Codes Compliance Administrator shall be obtained before the commencement of the 3rd party review. A 25% discount of the above stated plan review fees shall be credited to the building permit application upon acceptance of an approved 3rd party review. To be eligible for the discounted review fee, the 3rd party agency responsible for the review must certify that all issues noted during the review process have been resolved.

Reinspection Fees:

A $ 40.00 fee ($75.00 for fire protection inspections) may be charged for each reinspection necessitated because of:

- 1) Work obviously not ready by the requested inspection time or canceling an inspection after the inspector arrives;
- 2) Failure to provide access sufficient to allow proper inspection, including locked properties, failure to provide a representative to accompany an inspector in an occupied house, and/or failure to provide safe ladders to gain access to areas to be inspected;
- 3) Reinspection necessitated by failure to comply with code requirements after failing to correct a condition noted in a field correction notice provided on a previous inspection.

Work performed without a permit:

Administrative cost to be added to a permit fee when work is started without a required permit and notice is issued or contact is made to secure compliance by the Codes Compliance Administrator. Excluded would be any work identified in the USBC as meeting the requirement of an emergency condition or work authorized by the Administrator pending the approval of a permit.

EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2014

ADMINISTRATIVE FEE FOR APPEALS

$ 35.00

Overtime fee for inspections:

Occasionally, inspections are requested by the permit holder that would necessitate providing personnel outside of the normal working hours of the division. The division cannot assure that staff are available to perform these functions. However, the division will attempt to do so when certain inspection become critical to a project, when coordination in occupied buildings is required, or when no other source can be identified to perform the inspection.

Critical inspections may (but are not limited to) include ones that require coordination with a public utility, work in a normally occupied building that is better performed when the building is unoccupied, final inspections on critical structures such as schools and hospitals, and other inspections as deemed necessary by the Codes Compliance Administrator.

The division will not offer these services for routine inspections such as residential footings, foundations, framings and finals or for non-residential work involving footings and foundations which may be serviced by a 3rd party agency approved by the Administrator. Routine trade inspections are also not covered by this program.

It is the responsibility of the person requesting the inspection to contact the Codes Compliance Administrator at least 3 working days prior to the anticipated need so that options can be explored. The minimum required fee must be paid in advance of scheduling the inspection. Any additional time required to satisfy the inspection will be invoiced to the requesting party. A final inspection will not be made or certificate of occupancy will not granted until all inspection fees have been paid.

The fees are as follow:

Minimum fee (first two hours):	$ 125.00
Additional fee per hour or fraction thereof:	$ 60.00

Fee is doubled if the inspection requires two inspectors to conduct the inspection.

REFUND OF PERMIT FEES; SERVICE CHARGE

The Codes Compliance Administrator shall authorize, upon application by the permit holder, a partial refund of any permit fee upon application by the person or corporation who paid such fee under the following conditions and in the following amounts:

- (1) If the work authorized by the permit has not been started and no inspections have been made, the permit fee less a service charge of $ 50.00 or the base fee and any plan review fees, which ever is greater, shall be refunded.
- (2) In the case of the revocation of a permit or the abandonment or discontinuance of a building project, the permit fee for the portion of the work which was not completed less a service charge of $ 50.00 or the base fee and any plan review fees, which ever is greater, shall be refunded.

- (3) No fee refund is due if the permit expires and is canceled by the city if the applicant fails to respond to notification.
- (4) No refund is due should the work covered by a permit continue after the abandonment by the original permit holder for whatever reason. The owner, lessee, or new contractor shall notify the Codes Compliance Division in writing of any change of permit holder. This notification shall contain the date of abandonment or release of the original permit holder, the name of the new permit holder, and any required license and/or tradesmen certification required by the USBC, state contractor's regulations, and city code.
